"THE MEDDLER"

A Universal Western Starring

Jack Hoxie

Richard Gilmore, a successful young business man craves excitement. He bids his fiancée goodby and starts west with his man, Jeeves. Soon after, the country around Red Gulch is startled by a mysterious, but courteous bandit who takes souvenirs instead of money from his victims, which he sends to his sweetheart.

Gloria Canfield, sister of Jeff Canfield, a large cattle owner, returns from school. She is held up by Gilmore, who proves to be the novelty seeking bandit. The stage driver dashes away, leaving the girl with the bandit. She becomes fascinated by his personality and is almost reluctant when he helps her on the way to her brother's ranch.

Gilmore escapes when a posse, headed by the girl's brother, rides up. He hides in the ruins of an old Spanish mission, and overhears Bud Meyers and a number of other rustlers plot to get Canfield's cattle. Gilmore himself, rides to the ranch and intends to inform them of their danger.

He is held up by Gloria, but the trusty Jeeves rides up and turns the tables. The 'bandits' lock the brother and sister in a shed, and await the rustlers. In the end, they capture them, after a terrific battle, and Gilmore wins the girl's favor. And just about this time, Gilmore receives word from his fiancée to the effect that she is married to a society man.
